

SYDNEY CANCER PARTNERS 1ST ANNIVERSARY FORUM

PROGRAM OF SPEAKERS

3.20 - 3.30pm	Arrival & registration
3.30 - 3.40pm	Acknowledgement of Country Welcome, Opening remarks Forum Chair: Clinical Professor Rosemary Balleine - Clinical & Strategic Partnerships Lead, Sydney Cancer Partners
3.40 - 3.50pm	Professor Anna DeFazio - Director, Sydney Cancer Partners
3.50 - 4.00pm	The NSW Cancer Plan and vision for Capacity Building Grants Professor Tracey O'Brien, Chief Executive Cancer Institute NSW
4.00 - 4.40pm	Panel discussion: New discovery or deeper understanding. Where should we invest to cure cancer? Chaired by Clinical Professor Rosemary Balleine The goal of cancer research is to end human suffering through intellectual endeavour. Faced with limited resources and stockpiles of existing data, should we focus on the search for new breakthroughs, or could we find the answers in understanding and translating information that we already hold? Panel members: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Professor Lisa Horvath - Director of Research, Chris O'Brien Lifehouse and SCP Steering Committee</li> <li>2. Professor Tim Shaw -</li> <li>3. Professor Mark Molloy - Lawrence Penn Chair of Bowel Cancer Research, The University of Sydney</li> <li>4. Dr Carolyn Mazariego - Research Fellow The University of Sydney Daffodil Centre</li> <li>5. Mr Murray McLachlan - Deputy Chair, Cancer Voices NSW</li> </ol>
4.40 - 4.50pm	Announcement of Sydney Cancer Partners PhD scholarship recipients
4.50 - 4.55pm	Closing remarks Professor Anna DeFazio
5.00 - 6.00pm	Networking drinks and canapés
6.00pm	Event ends